Design your own picture cards!

Template A5

Examples for instruction cards:

Paint a picture of something that you think should be changed in our world.

Paint a picture of something you would wish for in our world.

Paint a picture of a sustainability problem and its solution

Paint a picture of something which could contribute to a good life for everyone.

Paint a picture of something that would make you and the people around you happy.

Paint something that every person can contribute to protecting the environment.

Paint something that every person can contribute to the protection of nature.

Paint a picture of an unfair situation which you believe needs to be changed.

Paint a picture that shows a possible solution to a Sustainable Development Goal.