The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) apply equally to all countries and people around the world. Their purpose is to ensure that our world becomes a place where all people can lead a good life—both now and in the future. The poster touches on several global topics and illustrates how we can change them for the better by 2030. All questions and statements in the boxes relate to one or several of the illustrated situations. Find them and also try to answer the questions for yourself! Further information, recommendations and educational suggestions (German only) can be found on www.umweltbildung.at/zwischenstopp2030.
